BENEFITING

BELLEVUE ARTS MUSEUM

Saturday, July 15, 2023
WELCOME TO ARTFUL EVENING

It is with great pleasure and excitement that we extend our warmest welcome to you all to celebrate 2023 Artful Evening.

We are deeply grateful for your presence tonight, as your support plays a vital role in supporting the arts in our region. You are a vital part of our vision that recognizes the significance of art, craft and design in the world around us.

BAM continues to be a platform for prominent and emerging artists to share their unique visions. With exhibitions such as Strange Weather: From the Collections of Jordan D. Schnitzer and His Family Foundation and Preston Wadley: Abstract Truth, the Museum is a space to hold intentional and timely conversations about issues facing our world. Our mission to engage people in the power of art, craft and design is at the center of everything we do.

This evening is made even more special in honoring current BAM Trustee and Past President, Mitch Smith, AIA and MG2. Smith and MG2 are inspirational examples of how thoughtful and responsive design elevates built environments, impacting our perspective. Smith’s leadership on the BAM Board of Trustees is exemplary and we are grateful for his impact on the history and evolution of the Museum.

Once again, welcome to the Bellevue Arts Museum’s Artful Evening Gala—a celebration of art, culture, and the boundless possibilities of human imagination. The support raised at tonight’s Artful Evening Gala supports the Museum’s mission allowing us to continue to be a gathering place for the freedom of artistic expression, sharing diverse experiences, and creating thought-provoking exhibitions. We hope you join us July 28-30 for the 77th annual Bellevue Arts Museum Arts Fair from which the idea for the Museum originated.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, Advisory Council, Docents and BAM Staff, thank you for joining us to celebrate arts in our community and to ensure the sustainability and success of the Bellevue Arts Museum for many years to come.

With gratitude,

E. MICHAEL WHITTINGTON | Executive Director
JAY PATHY | Board of Trustees, President
THANKS TO YOU & OUR SPONSORS, BELLEVUE ARTS MUSEUM IS THE LEADING DESTINATION IN THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST FOR ART, CRAFT & DESIGN.

HONORING

MITCH SMITH, AIA AND MG2

The Bellevue Arts Museum is proud to honor Mitch Smith, AIA and MG2 for their long-term support of the museum, and their transformational impact on the craft of architecture.

Smith’s unwavering commitment to the advancement of the museum in the community as past President and on the BAM Board of Trustees has been particularly impactful.

An influential, organizational strategist, Mitch Smith, knows how to push boundaries and help others achieve new heights of success. As one of the first 20 employees to join MG2, Mitch quickly rose from Project Manager to CEO and Chairman of the Board by honing the craft of architecture. He perfectly balances delivery excellence with a design mindset, driving kinetic transformation long into the future.

By setting a clear vision, Mitch helps employees build meaningful connections between their work and their client’s desire to advance their brand. It is this ability, along with his unflattering candor, that cultivates a winning culture founded on the right people, strategies, and commitment to clients. When he isn’t shaping the voice of MG2, you can find Mitch on his motorcycle, exploring the natural beauty of the Pacific Northwest with his family.

Smith has always been a big supporter of the arts community, finding commonalities and incorporating art into MG2 and the architectural world as much as he can. As an artist advocate and co-conspirator, Mitch is compelled by the Museum’s robust exhibitions, and moved by the depth of artistic motivation, inspiration, and vision. He is champion for cultural and artistic inclusivity and leads BAM’s Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, and Accessibility (IDEA) Committee and continues to lead these efforts at MG2.

AUCTION RULES

Upon entry, each guest will be given a bid number. To bid in the silent auction, write your bid number on the sheet next to the item you wish to bid on. To bid in the live auction, hold your bid card high with the number toward the auctioneer. Either the auctioneer or bid spotter can accept your bid.

By bidding in the live or silent auctions, each bidder agrees to the following auction rules:

- A bid acknowledged by the live auctioneer is a legal contract to purchase the item. As well, in the silent auction, designation of your submitted bid by the silent auction official as the top bid is a legal contract to purchase that silent auction item.
- Top bidders may pay for their items at the auction cashiering stations, which will open for regular service at the conclusion of the live auction. We encourage you to pay for your purchases only once, at the end of the live auction. Payment in full, however, is mandatory at the auction.
- Auction items will be awarded to one purchaser only. The top bid amount for an auction item will not be split among bidders who may have agreed to pay a portion of the top bid amount unless all of the payments for the auction are presented to the cashier at the time of payment.
- All purchases are final, and there will be no exchanges or refunds on items unless otherwise noted.
- The purchaser assumes the responsibility to locate and remove purchases from the Bellevue Arts Museum and Westin Bellevue premises this evening. Purchasers may claim certificate items at the Certificate Table.
- Physical items must be removed from the premises this evening. BAM volunteers will wrap your purchases to take home at no charge to you. Purchased items not retrieved this evening will be kept by Bellevue Arts Museum for a maximum of 30 days. Purchased items not collected by August 1 will be stored off-site at the buyer’s expense. Arrangements to pick up unclaimed items after this evening must be made through Andrew Walsh, Registrar. Please note, BAM will not ship items.
- Bidders must pre-register their credit card during registration. Pre-registered guests will have paid receipts for their auction purchases delivered to them during the course of the auction, and final receipts mailed after the auction.
- The auctioneer reserves the right to reject any bid which is a minimal fractional advance over the prior bid. The auctioneer reserves the right to add or withdraw, without notice, items to or from the auction.
- We gladly accept payment by cash, check, Visa, MasterCard, or Discover. Please make your check payable to Bellevue Arts Museum. The Internal Revenue Service has granted Bellevue Arts Museum charitable organization status. We are, thus, a 501(c) (3) charitable organization and your payments are tax-deductible as a charitable contribution, only to the extent provided by law. Generally, you may deduct as a charitable contribution the amount you pay above the fair market value of the item. Please see your tax professional for deductibility for you.
- Unless otherwise noted, all goods and services must be claimed and used within one year of the auction date, and reservations for trips and parties must be mutually arranged with the donor unless otherwise noted.
- Bellevue Arts Museum has attempted to describe all catalogue items correctly, but all items are offered “as is,” where is. Bellevue Arts Museum neither warrants nor represents, and in no event shall be responsible for the correctness of the descriptions, genuineness, authorship, provenance, or condition of the items. No statement made in this catalogue or made orally at the auction or elsewhere shall be deemed as such a warranty for tax purposes or fair market value.
- In your auction catalogue, “Value” is an estimate of the retail value. Generally, we depend on the item donor to give us a reasonable estimate of the item’s retail value. Items have not been appraised unless otherwise noted.
- Each person issued a bid number (bidder) assumes all risks and hazards related to the auction and items obtained at the auction. Each bidder agrees to hold harmless from any liability arising therefrom Bellevue Arts Museum, its elected and appointed officials, members and employees, the auctioneer(s), the auction company and its agents and employees, the event organizers, sponsors, and/or volunteers connected with the auction.

PRESTON WADLEY: ABSTRACT TRUTH

Preston Wadley is Professor Emeritus of Fine Arts at Cornish College of the Arts. This exhibition features about thirty of his art books, as well as related photographs. Wadley’s work focuses on the themes of race, identity, local history, and the history of photography. Think of your eyes as ears is a phrase Wadley uses often in his work, saying “think of your eyes as ears—I’m talking to you,” meaning he wants viewers to engage with his work on more than just a visual level. Each book tells a story, and he wants you to listen.

STRANGE WEATHER: FROM THE COLLECTIONS OF JORDAN D. SCHNITZER AND HIS FAMILY FOUNDATION

Strange Weather features artworks which illuminate and reframe the boundaries of bodies and the environment. The exhibition spans five decades from 1977–2020, and are drawn together for how they creatively call attention to the impact and history of forced migrations, industrialization, global capitalism, and trauma on humans and the contemporary landscape. The influential and well-known artists in the exhibition utilize a range of aesthetic strategies, including abstraction, portraiture, figurative painting, landscape, and installation, to explore the current atmospheric strangeness.

Strange Weather: From the Collections of Jordan D. Schnitzer and His Family Foundation is curated by Dr. Rachel Nelson, Director, Institute of the Arts and Sciences, UC Santa Cruz, and Professor Jennifer Gonzalez, History of Art and Visual Culture, UC Santa Cruz, with assistance of Madisen Trues. The exhibition was organized in partnership with the UC Santa Cruz Institute of Arts, Santa Cruz Museum of Art and History, and the Jordan Schnitzer Family Foundation. Bellevue Arts Museum is generously supported by its donors and members.
